Introduction

I begin in the name of Allāh سُبْحَانَهُ وَتَعَالَى Lord of the Worlds and sending Peace & Salutations on our beloved Rasūlullāh صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ.

The blessed month of Ramaḍān came and went. The days were spent abstaining from food and drink, whilst our nights were spent standing in front of our Lord listening and reciting the beautiful words of the Holy Qur’ān. As we approach the end of the month, Allāh سُبْحَانَهُ وَتَعَالَى rewards us with a day of celebration, the day of Eid. The 1st of Shawwāl will be Eid al-Fiṭr.

Allāh سُبْحَانَهُ وَتَعَالَى has given the Ummah of Rasūlullāh صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ, two days of the year for celebration.

Rasūlullāh صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ on one occasion said:

‘Oh, Abū Bakr رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ every nation has its festival (Eid) and this day is our festival (Eid)’.

The word Eid comes from the Arabic word, <sup>ع</sup>Āda, which means to return; as this day of joy and happiness returns each year, it is called Eid.

The concept of celebration in Islām is based on religious achievement, not on any past events. Eid al-Fiṭr is celebrated as we accomplish fasting in Ramaḍān and attain a degree of closeness to Allāh <sup>سُبْحَانَهُ وَتَعَالَى</sup>. We do not celebrate the birth or death of anybody. We do not celebrate by singing and dancing, but we celebrate by Charity, Prayer and meeting our family on these blessed days.

Allāh <sup>سُبْحَانَهُ وَتَعَالَى</sup> wants to make the day of Eid a happy day for everyone, from all walks of life, from the rich to the poor. And on this day Allāh <sup>سُبْحَانَهُ وَتَعَالَى</sup> will ensure that even the poor people will eat. And how does He do this? Through the Ṣadaqāt al-Fiṭr that we all discharge on this day.

Many times, the Sunnah of this special day are mentioned before the Eid prayer, by which time a person may have already missed the chance of carrying out many of the rewarding Sunnah actions on this blessed day.

Furthermore, many people do not understand the wisdom behind the charity that is given on this day; the Ṣadaqāt al-Fiṭr as well as its rulings.

The purpose of this short booklet will be to Inshā' Allāh explain the Sunnah of this day through the Ḥadīth of Rasūlullāh ﷺ and to also explain the rulings of the Ṣadaqāt al-Fiṭr. I have referred to several articles from Maulānā Yūsuf ibn Shabbīr (Islamicportal.co.uk) which I have included in the references if people wish to find more detail.

I would recommend that 'Ulamā' go through some of these points on the day before Eid, so the congregation are educated on the rewarding acts which can be performed on this day and have a chance to carry them out. I would also recommend that this booklet is also read by our Sisters, so they can also educate themselves on these subjects.

On this day, like any other day, we should stay away from actions which are against the teachings of Islām and ensure we do not undo all the spiritual effort we have made in the blessed month of Ramaḍān. We should carry on worshipping with the momentum we have built up in the past month and ensure we do not miss any of our obligatory prayers.

Due to the lockdown we find ourselves in this year, I thought it would be beneficial to update this booklet with rulings and guidance on performing Eid Ṣalāh in such situations. I have also included two short Khuṭbahs in the Appendices which can be used as well as a quick reference guide to the Sunnah of Eid.

I pray that Allāh سُبْحَانَهُ وَتَعَالَى accepts this brief work and enables all of us to spend this blessed day following the Sunnah of Rasūlullāh صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ.

The Night before Eid

The night preceding Eid is also a very blessed night. The Ḥadīth below describes one of the blessings of that person who spends the nights of Eid in prayer.

عَنْ أَبِي أُمَامَةَ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ
مَنْ قَامَ لَيْلَتِي الْعِيدَيْنِ لِلَّهِ مُحْتَسِبًا لَمْ يَمُتْ قَلْبُهُ يَوْمَ تَمُوتُ

Abū Umāmah رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ narrates that Rasūlullāh صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ said, “Whoever spends the nights of the two Eid in praying voluntary (optional) prayers, seeking reward from Allāh, his heart will not die on the Day when hearts will die”

We can see from this Ḥadīth how rewarding worship is on this night. We should try and stay awake and read some Nawāfil (optional prayers), especially Tahajjud Ṣalāh. On this night we should also supplicate to Allāh سُبْحَانَهُ وَتَعَالَى and ask for all our needs and desires. Do not spend the night carrying out actions which are impermissible.

The Sunnah of Eid

The Day of Eid

This blessed day gives us the opportunity to carry out several actions in accordance with the Sunnah of Rasūlullāh ﷺ and his blessed Companions رَضِيَ اللهُ عَنْهُمْ. These acts are very rewarding and, in these days, where Sunnah actions are increasingly considered less significant, we must try our best to bring these Sunnah back to life.

Begin the day by reading Fajr Ṣalāh. For men this should be in the Masjid in congregation under normal circumstances. In lockdown, read Fajr Ṣalāh together with the family at home.

Bath, Perfume and Miswāk

عَنْ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ
 إِنَّ هَذَا يَوْمٌ عِيدٌ جَعَلَهُ اللَّهُ لِلْمُسْلِمِينَ فَمَنْ جَاءَ إِلَى الْجُمُعَةِ
 فَلْيَغْتَسِلْ وَإِنْ كَانَ طَيْبٌ فَلْيَمَسَّ مِنْهُ وَعَلَيْكُمْ بِالسَّوَاكِ"<sup>3</sup>

Ibn ‘Abbās رَضِيَ اللهُ عَنْهُ narrates that Rasūlullāh ﷺ said
 ‘This day is an Eid (festival) which Allāh has ordained for the Muslims. Whoever comes to Friday (prayer), let him take a bath and if he has perfume then let him put some on. And upon you (I urge to use) is the tooth stick.’

In this Ḥadīth, it mentions performing Ghusl, the ‘ritual bath’ for Jumu‘ah Ṣalāh. The day of Jumu‘ah has been described as an Eid so we should also perform these actions on the day of Eid. The bath should be taken before the Eid Ṣalāh and should be done in the Sunnah way. We should also use perfume -‘Iṭr and a Miswāk (tooth stick).

A quick reminder of the Sunnah method of Ghusl:

1. Make the intention (this does not have to be verbal).
2. Wash your hands up to and including your wrists
3. Wash your private parts and any uncleanliness you may have on your bodies
4. Perform complete Wuḍū’ (ablution). If water is collecting on the floor, you can delay washing your feet until the end of the bath.
5. Wash your whole body 3 times

Wear your Best Clothes

عَنْ سَالِمٍ عَنْ أَبِيهِ قَالَ وَجَدَ عُمَرُ بْنُ الْخَطَّابِ رَضِيَ اللَّهُ تَعَالَى
عنه حُلَّةً مِنْ إِسْتَبْرَقٍ فَأَخَذَهَا فَأَتَى بِهَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى
اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ابْتَغِ هَذِهِ فَتَجَمَّلْ بِهَا لِلْعِيدِ
وَالْوَفْدِ

فَقَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ
إِنَّمَا هَذِهِ لِبِاسٍ مَنْ لَا خَلَاقَ لَهُ
أَوْ إِنَّمَا يَلْبَسُ هَذِهِ مَنْ لَا خَلَاقَ لَهُ<sup>4</sup>

Sālim رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ mentions that his father said: "Umar ibn Al-Khaṭṭāb رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ, found a suit of Istibraq (a type of silk) in the market. He took it and brought it to the Messenger of Allāh صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ and said: 'O Messenger of Allāh صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ why don't you buy this and adorn yourself with it for the two Eid's and when (meeting) the delegations?' The Messenger of Allāh صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ said: 'This is the clothing of one who has no share in the Hereafter,' or: 'This is worn by one who has no share in the Hereafter.'

From this Ḥadīth, we can see that it was a tradition in the time of Rasūlullāh صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ to adorn oneself with their best clothes on the day of Eid. We should also adorn ourselves with our best clothes. This doesn't necessarily have to be new clothes. We must ensure that we do not wear any type of clothing which is immodest and revealing.

Eating an odd number of Dates

عَنْ أَنَسٍ قَالَ كَانَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا يَغْدُو يَوْمَ
الْفِطْرِ حَتَّى يَأْكُلَ تَمْرَاتٍ
وَقَالَ مُرَجَّى بْنُ رَجَاءٍ حَدَّثَنِي عُبَيْدُ اللَّهِ قَالَ حَدَّثَنِي أَنَسٌ عَنِ
النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَيَأْكُلُهُنَّ وَتَرًا<sup>5</sup>

Anas رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ narrates that Rasūlullāh صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ never proceeded (for the prayer) on the Day of Eid al-Fiṭr unless he had eaten some dates. Anas رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ further narrated that Rasūlullāh صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ used to eat an odd number of dates.

On this auspicious day, Allāh سُبْحَانَهُ وَتَعَالَى has made it impermissible for us to fast. We should eat an odd number of dates before leaving the house and proceeding towards the Masjid.

Going to and from Eid Ṣalāh

عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ إِذَا خَرَجَ إِلَى الْعِيدِ رَجَعَ فِي غَيْرِ الطَّرِيقِ الَّذِي أَخَذَ فِيهِ<sup>6</sup>

Abū Hurayrah رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ narrates when the Prophet صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ went out to Eid (Ṣalāh), he would return via another route than the first one he took.

عَنْ عَلِيٍّ قَالَ إِنَّ مِنْ السُّنَّةِ أَنْ يَمْشِيَ إِلَى الْعِيدِ<sup>7</sup>

In another Ḥadīth in Sunan Nasā'ī, 'Alī رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ narrates that it is part of the Sunnah to walk to Eid (Ṣalāh).

When we go for Eid Ṣalāh, we should go walking if possible. We should also go to the place of prayer by one route and return via another.

If we are arriving by transportation, then we should try and park our car a little further away from the place of prayer, so we can fulfil both Sunnah actions. The more steps a person takes to the place of prayer, the more rewarding it will be.

We must also remember to park our cars properly and not cause any inconvenience by parking them in front of peoples drives or in locations where it is illegal to park.

Reciting the Takbīr

وَلِتُكَبِّرُوا اللَّهَ عَلَىٰ مَا هَدَيْتُكُمْ وَلَعَلَّكُمْ تَشْكُرُونَ ﴿١٨٥﴾<sup>8</sup>

Allāh سُبْحَانَكَ وَتَعَالَى says, “And proclaim the Takbīr of Allāh for having guided you, and (so) that you may be grateful”.

On the way to the place of prayer, on the day of Eid al-Fiṭr, we should recite the Takbīr in a low audible voice.

اللَّهُ أَكْبَرُ اللَّهُ أَكْبَرُ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ
وَاللَّهُ أَكْبَرُ اللَّهُ أَكْبَرُ وَلِلَّهِ الْحَمْدُ

Allāh is the greatest, Allāh is the greatest, there is no God but

Allāh

And Allāh is the greatest, Allāh is the greatest and to Allāh

belongs all praise

<sup>8</sup> Sūrah al-Baqarah verse 185

Discharging the Ṣadaqāt al-Fiṭr

عَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَمَرَ بِصَدَقَةِ
الْفِطْرِ أَنْ تُؤَدَّى قَبْلَ خُرُوجِ النَّاسِ إِلَى الصَّلَاةِ<sup>9</sup>

Ibn ‘Umar رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ narrates that Rasūlullāh صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ enjoined that Ṣadaqāt al-Fiṭr should be given before the people go out to pray.

The purpose of the Ṣadaqāt al-Fiṭr is to ensure that poor people eat on the day of Eid. This shall be discussed in more detail later on.

The Eid Ṣalāh

The Eid Ṣalāh is Wājib (obligatory) on all male Muslims and is read anytime between Ishrāq (sunrise) and Zawāl (zenith point). No Nafl (optional) Ṣalāh will be offered either at home prior to leaving for Eid Ṣalāh or after you have arrived at the Masjid or location for the Eid Ṣalāh. However, it is recommended to perform Nafl Ṣalāh after Eid prayers at home.<sup>10</sup>

The Eid Ṣalāh will be read first and the khuṭbah will be read after the Ṣalāh. There will be no Adhān or Iqāmah for the Eid Ṣalāh as this is only done for the 5 compulsory Ṣalāh.

<sup>10</sup> <https://islamicportal.co.uk/nafl-salah-before-and-after-eid-prayers/>

Guidance on Eid Ṣalāh during Lockdown

This year due to the lockdown there have been many queries regarding Eid Ṣalāh. These have been answered in a special article on Islamicportal.co.uk. I have included the guidance below.<sup>11</sup>

Eid Ṣalāh in the Masjid

- As the Government has confirmed that religious places are to remain closed, Eid Ṣalāh will not be organised in the Masjids for the general public.
- Key workers who are currently accessing the Masjid legally should perform Eid Ṣalāh in the Masjid, if possible, whilst complying with all the necessary precautions.
- The minimum number of participants for the validity of Eid Ṣalāh in the Ḥanafī school is four mature (bāligh) males including the Imam, similar to Jumu‘ah Ṣalāh. Therefore, if four key workers are not present, Eid Ṣalāh will not take place.

Eid Ṣalāh at home and other settings

- If four adult males are lawfully present in a home or workplace or elsewhere, they can perform Eid Ṣalāh whilst taking all the necessary precautions. In the home setting, the females and children from the same household can also participate. The Ṣalāh can also be performed in the garden. It is, however, imperative to continue to comply with the lockdown measures.

What if Eid Ṣalāh is not performed?

- Although Eid Ṣalāh is Wājib (necessary) under normal circumstances, individuals at home who are unable to perform Eid Ṣalāh or decide not to, are excused due to the lockdown. They will, Inshā'Allāh, be rewarded based on their intention and actions of previous years.
- Individuals who do not perform Eid Ṣalāh can perform two or four Rak'āt Nafl Ṣalāh, as mentioned by Imam Muḥammad ibn al-Ḥasan al-Shaybānī (d. 189/805) in al-Aṣl (1:320). The companion 'Abdullāh ibn Mas'ūd رَضِيَ اللهُ عَنْهُ (d. 32/653) said, “Whoever misses the Eid prayer should perform four Rak'āt” (Muṣannaf 'Abd al-Razzāq, 5713; Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Shaybah, 5800; the narration is Ṣaḥīḥ, Faṭḥ al-Bārī, 2:475).
- Performing two or four Rak'āt is optional and a Nafl Ṣalāh. Thus, it will be performed individually without any extra Takbīrs, as it is not Eid Ṣalāh nor its Qaḍā'. Accordingly, there will be no Khuṭbah (sermon) thereafter.

The aforementioned ruling takes into account the challenges posed by the lockdown, the unique nature of Eid Ṣalāh and its significance, the absence of a replacement such as Zuhr for Jumu‘ah Ṣalāh, along with some narrations from the pious predecessors (Muṣannaf ‘Abd al-Razzāq, 5855, 5716; al-Sunan al-Kubrā, 6237; Ma‘ānī al-Āthār, 7289; Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Shaybah, 2:4).

Everyone is requested to maintain respect for the various positions of scholars in this regard and supplicate to Allāh سُبْحَانَہٗ وَتَعَالَى to protect us all and remove this calamity, so we can perform Ṣalāh in the Masjids as soon as possible.

Sunnah Recitation for Eid Ṣalāt

There are three combinations that have been transmitted from the practice of Rasūlullāh ﷺ.<sup>12</sup>

1. Sūrah Qāf (50) in the 1st Rakʿah and Sūrah Al-Qamar (54) in the 2nd Rakʿah.
2. Sūrah Al-Aʿlā (87) in the 1st Rakʿah and Sūrah Al-Ghāshiyah (88) in the 2nd Rakʿah.
3. Sūrah Al-Naba' (78) in the 1st Rakʿah and Sūrah Al-Shams (91) in the 2nd Rakʿah. (This narration is weak as mentioned in Majmaʿ al-Zawāʿid, 2: 204 but can be practiced upon)

Ḥāfiẓ Ibn al-Qayyim (d. 751/1350) mentions the first two combinations in Zād al-Maʿād (1: 205) and affirms that Rasūlullāh ﷺ would recite the full chapters. It is therefore Sunnah to recite the full Sūrah and not suffice on a few verses

<sup>12</sup> <https://islamicportal.co.uk/sunnah-recitation-for-eid-salah/>

The Method of Eid Ṣalāh

The method described below is according to the Ḥanafī School of thought.

- Eid Ṣalāh can be performed from shortly after sunrise until midday.
- There is no Adhān or Iqāmah for Eid Ṣalāh.
- Two Rak‘ah will be performed with loud recitation similar to Fajr Ṣalāh. The Khuṭbah (sermon) will be after Ṣalāh.
- The Ṣalāh contains six extra Takbīrs: three before the recitation in the first Rak‘ah and three after the recitation in the second Rak‘ah.
- Khuṭbah is not a prerequisite for the validity of Eid Ṣalāh. However, it is Masnūn and therefore every attempt should be made to deliver the Khuṭbah even if it is brief. If for some reason, the Khuṭbah is not delivered, this will be Makrūh (disliked), however, the Eid Ṣalāh will be valid.

The sequence for Eid Ṣalāh is as follows:

1st Rak‘ah

- The Ṣalāh will start with Takbīr Taḥrimah (Allāhu Akbar). Fold the hands and read Thanā in the usual manner
- The Imām will raise his hands and say Takbīr (Allāhu Akbar) and drop his hands to the side (as they are in qawmah – after Rukūʿ). The congregation will also do the same (1st extra Takbīr)

- The Imām will raise his hands again and say Takbīr (Allāhu Akbar) and drop his hands to the side. The congregation will also do the same (2nd extra Takbīr)
- The Imām will raise his hands again and say Takbīr (Allāhu Akbar) and this time fold his hands. The congregation will also do the same (3rd extra Takbīr)
- The Imām will recite Sūrah Fātiḥah and another Sūrah (congregation will listen) and complete the Rakʿah as normal

2nd Rakʿah

- In the second Rakʿah, the Imām will first recite Sūrah Fātiḥah and another Sūrah (congregation will listen)
- Once the Sūrah has concluded, the Imām will raise his hands and say the Takbīr (Allāhu Akbar) and drop his hands to the side. The congregation will also do the same (4th extra Takbīr)

- The Imām will raise his hands again and say Takbīr (Allāhu Akbar) and drop his hands to the side, the congregation will also do the same (5th extra Takbīr)
- The Imām will raise his hands again and say Takbīr (Allāhu Akbar) and drop his hands to the side, the congregation will also do the same (6th extra Takbīr)
- The Imām will again recite the Takbīr (Allāhu Akbar), but this time will go into Rukūʿ.
- The Imām will then carry on as normal and conclude the prayer.
- Once the prayer has finished, the Imām will recite the Khuṭbah for Eid Ṣalāt.

The Khuṭbah

The Khuṭbah for the Eid Ṣalāh is recited after the Ṣalāh unlike Jumʿah where it is recited before. To recite the Khuṭbah for the Eid Ṣalāh is Sunnah but it is Wājib to listen to it. Therefore, once the Ṣalāh has concluded, listen attentively, and remain silent. A sample Khuṭbah has been included in Appendix A.

The Eid greeting

Many people use the phrase ‘Eid Mubarak’. There is no harm in saying this as long as we do not regard the specific wording as Sunnah.<sup>13</sup>

Rather it would be preferred to use phrases which the dear Companions رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُمْ used to use. On this joyous day, the companions used to greet each other by saying:

تَقَبَّلَ اللَّهُ مِنَّا وَمِنْكُمْ

Taqabbalallāhu minnā wa minkum

‘May Allāh تَقَبَّلَ اللَّهُ مِنَّا وَمِنْكُمْ accept (deeds) from us and from you’

Once the Khuṭbah has concluded, many people rush to greet each other. We must ensure if we are performing our Ṣalāh in the Masjid that we respect the sanctity of the place of worship.

Note: In times of lockdown, please adhere to advice on social distancing as necessary when greeting one another.

Ṣadaqāt al-Fiṭr

One of the major actions we associate with this day is the Ṣadaqāt al-Fiṭr. This should be given to Muslims, however if it is given to a dhimmi (a non-Muslim living in Muslim lands) then the obligation will be fulfilled.<sup>14</sup>

As Muslims living in the UK, if there are eligible recipients of the Ṣadaqāt al-Fiṭr locally then these should be given priority. However, the obligation would be fulfilled if it reached an eligible recipient anywhere in the world.<sup>15</sup>

There are 2 purposes of the Ṣadaqāt al-Fiṭr

1. On this day, the charity will be given to the poor people, so they can also eat and do not need to ask on this day.
2. The charity also purifies our fasts from idle talk and obscenities which we may have done in the state of fasting.

<sup>15</sup> <https://islamicportal.co.uk/where-should-sadaqah-al-fitr-be-donated/>

Who must discharge the Ṣadaqāt al-Fiṭr?

عَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُمَا قَالَ فَرَضَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ صَدَقَةَ الْفِطْرِ أَوْ قَالَ رَمَضَانَ عَلَى الذَّكَرِ وَالْأُنْثَى وَالْحُرِّ وَالْمَمْلُوكِ صَاعًا مِنْ تَمْرٍ أَوْ صَاعًا مِنْ شَعِيرٍ<sup>16</sup>

Ibn ‘Umar رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ narrated that Rasūlullāh صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ made it incumbent the Ṣadaqāt al-Fiṭr or Ramaḍān on all males, females, free and bondsmen, one Ṣā‘ of dates or one Ṣā‘ of Barley.

The Ṣadaqāt al-Fiṭr is Wājib, (necessary) and due upon all Muslims, not just the mature. For any children that are not mature, it will be the father’s responsibility to discharge it for them.

Any person who pays Zakāt will have to also pay the Ṣadaqāt al-Fiṭr. Furthermore, if a person has excess non-productive wealth which is above the Nisāb value (612.36g of silver = £249.05 on 14th May 2020), they will also have to pay. A father will give on behalf of his minor children if they do not have the qualifying wealth. If they do, then it can be taken out from their wealth. A person may also pay on behalf of other members of their family if they wish to do so.

When does the Ṣadaqāt al-Fiṭr become obligatory?

Sadaqāt al-Fiṭr becomes obligatory on every person who must pay if they are alive at the dawn of Eid al-Fiṭr. It can also be - given in advance. In fact, in this day and age, when many of the recipients are in foreign countries, if we are using charities to donate our Ṣadaqāt al-Fiṭr then it would be better to do so earlier, so it reaches the poor people on the day. It can be discharged any time after the month of Ramaḍān has started.

If a person forgets to give the Ṣadaqāt al-Fiṭr then they will still have to discharge it afterwards.

The Ṣadaqāt al-Fiṭr during Lockdown

Many people discharge their Ṣadaqāt al-Fiṭr on the morning of Eid at their local Masjid or place of prayer. This will not be possible during a lockdown situation; however this does not absolve them of the obligation.

If possible, find some local recipients who are eligible and give it to them. If that is not possible then use a reputable and trustworthy charity to discharge it. Ensure that it is discharged well in advance so it can reach its intended recipients in time for Eid.

How much do we have to pay?

Unlike Zakāt, the Ṣadaqāt al-Fiṭr is the same amount for everyone. And this amount is a quantity of certain types of food or the monetary equivalent. The Ḥadīth on the previous page mentions the Ṣā<sup>c</sup>, which was a measure that was common in the days of Rasūlullāh ﷺ. The Ṣā<sup>c</sup> in today's terms will be 5.88 litres so half of a Ṣā<sup>c</sup> will be 2.94 litres.

We have already heard it was one Ṣā<sup>c</sup> of dates or barley, but what other commodities are there?

عَنْ أَبِي سَعِيدٍ الْخُدْرِيِّ رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ قَالَ كُنَّا نُعْطِيهَا فِي زَمَانِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ صَاعًا مِنْ طَعَامٍ أَوْ صَاعًا مِنْ تَمْرٍ أَوْ صَاعًا مِنْ شَعِيرٍ أَوْ صَاعًا مِنْ زَبِيبٍ فَلَمَّا جَاءَ مُعَاوِيَةُ وَجَاءَتِ السَّمْرَاءُ قَالَ أَرَى مُدًّا مِنْ هَذَا يَعْدِلُ مُدَّيْنِ<sup>17</sup>

Abū Sa'īd al Khudrī رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ narrates that in the lifetime of the Prophet صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ we used to give one Ṣā<sup>c</sup> of food or one Ṣā<sup>c</sup> of dates or one Ṣā<sup>c</sup> of barley or one Ṣā<sup>c</sup> of Raisins (dried grapes) as Ṣadaqāt al-Fiṭr. And when Mu'āwiyah رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ became the Caliph and the wheat was (available in abundance) he said, "I think (observe) that one Mudd (of wheat) equals two Mudds (of any of the above-mentioned things).

Therefore, the amount of Ṣadaqāt al-Fiṭr for wheat will be half of the other commodities. The Ṣadaqāt-Fiṭr will be  $\frac{1}{2}$  Ṣāʿ of wheat, or one Ṣāʿ of barley, dates or raisins or the monetary equivalent.

The amount of Ṣadaqāt al-Fiṭr which we are normally told is the least expensive amount, which would be the wheat value. If a person gives this amount then the obligation will be fulfilled, however if a person was able to give according to the other 3 dearer commodities (barley, raisins, or dates) then this is also part of the Sunnah.

What would be beneficial is during Ramaḍān, an exercise is carried out in each locality to calculate the value of these commodities according to local prices and then release a list of how much this equates to in monetary form. So, a separate value for wheat, barley, raisins, and dates is calculated.

If a person gives the higher amount of Ṣadaqāh, then there would be a twofold benefit. Firstly, every penny we spend in the path of Allāh سُبْحَانَكَ وَتَعَالَى is beneficial so it would be more rewarding and more virtuous. Secondly, it would be more beneficial to the poor person. Instead of receiving a few pounds which would be calculated on the value of wheat, they would receive much more, if the prices of the other commodities were used for the calculation. So, if we can afford it, we shouldn't just stick to the minimum all the time.

For the exact amount you must pay as a minimum, please consult your local scholars who will be able to give the local figures for the current year.

In Real Terms, how beneficial is the Ṣadaqāt al-Fiṭr?

There are nearly 3 million Muslims in the UK. Let's say 2 million had to pay the Ṣadaqāt al-Fiṭr and they all paid a minimum amount of £2.50. This would raise £5,000,000, five million pounds in a single day. Subḥān'Allāh, an amazing amount.

If we think how much money is raised around the world to feed poor people on this day, again this is testament to the infinite wisdom of Allāh سُبْحَانَكَ وَتَعَالَى and how Islām addresses all types of social issues including poverty.

Conclusion

Allāh Allāh SUBHĀNĀHU وَتَعَالَى blesses us continuously. We cannot count the amount of favours and bounties which are bestowed upon us daily. Another great blessing for us was the month of Ramaḍān. Allāh SUBHĀNĀHU وَتَعَالَى gave us the opportunity to reap from his infinite treasures and develop Taqwah – awareness of the Almighty.

The month ends and Allāh SUBHĀNĀHU وَتَعَالَى again blesses us with an auspicious day, the day of Eid al-Fiṭr. On this day we will remember all people in our global community and in the morning the focus will be on giving charity to the poor.

We will bathe, use the miswāk, perfume ourselves then adorn our best clothing which again is a sign of Allāh’s blessing upon us. We will eat an odd number of dates and then walk to the place of the Eid Ṣalāt with the Takbīr on our lips.

We will pray our Eid Ṣalāt with the extra Takbīr’s and then listen attentively to the Khuṭbah. Once it has concluded, we will greet each other with the greeting of the Companions and then make our way home to spend the day with our families.

Let’s make this day, a happy day, especially with our children. Give them gifts, reward them for the acts of worship they have done in the past month. Eat well and welcome everyone who comes to visit. Visit those who cannot leave their houses, the old and sick. Use this day to heal our relationships and reconnect with those who we may have fallen out with.

Remember not to miss any of our obligatory Ṣalāh and do not commit actions which are contrary to the teachings of our beautiful religion of Islām. Remember the ones who are no longer with us on this day in our supplications as well as those who are still here.

Use this day to follow the Sunnah of our beloved Messenger, Rasūlullāh ﷺ and make the intention, that from this day forth, we will try and act upon as many Sunnah as we can. Let us make the intention to learn about his life and his Sunnah, as this is the only way which will lead us to success in both this world and the hereafter.
